pretends to Have a Fit Before He Recog-nizes the Chum He Bobbed—A Mills Hotel Lodger, and Took His Roommate's Clothing—Picture in the Rogues' Gallery. The well-dressed roung man who has been in the City Hospital at Jersey City since Friday professing that he had forgotten his identity was proved to be an impostor and a fugitive from justice yesterday morning, and was put under arrest to await extradition to this city. He is wanted by the New York police to answer for the alleged stealing of some oversoate and other articles of wearing apparel. The Jersey City police had believed him to be an impostor from the first, although Chief Murphy took pains to follow up every clue thich might lead to his identity and clear him of the suspicion. The information that led to the detection of the sham was furnished by Harry Carpenter. a steward, of 524 West Thirty-fourth street After taking a look at the man, he told Chief Murphy that he was Harry A. Lichfield, and that for some time he had roomed with him at the Mills Hotel in Bleecker strest. About ten days are, when they decided to move to a hotel on seventh avenue, Lichfield suggested that they et all their things in his trunk, as Carpenter had none. This was done, and Lichfield and the trunk disappeared.

Lichfield, when confronted by Carpenter, refased to recognize him. "Don't you know me. Harry?" said Car-

"No, I don't," said Lichfield. Carpenter talked with him for forty-five minutes, but Lichfield persisted in disclaiming all knowledge of him or of the incidents to which Carpenter alluded.

Chief Murphy then called up the Mills Hotel over the telephone and the clerk there, from the description of Lichfield, verified Carpenter's story. While the conversation was going on over the telephone Lichfield called for a glass of water and turned pale. "I've had enough of this," said Chief Mur-thy finally. "I'll give you five minutes, and if at the end of that time you don't own up to being a fraud, I'll look you up." The Chief then put Lichfield in a little

About two minutes later there was the sound of a heavy fall. The Chief and Detective Robertson rushed into the room and found Lichfield face down on the floor, with his arms out-stretched, and he was writhing as though in an epileptic lit.
"Stop your fooling and get up," said the Chief, at which Lichfield, suddenly ceased to "Stop your fooling and get up," said the Chief, at which Lichfield, suddenly ceased to wriggle and sat up.

"Why, hello, Harry," he said, recognizing Carpenter, "now did I come to get here?"
The Chief didn't wait to hear any more, but summoned Dr. Varick of the Jersey City Hospital. The latter examined Lichfield carehilly and declared that he showed not the slightest signs of epilepsy. Lichfield told the doctor that his home was in East Somerville, Mass. and his father was in business at 374 washington street, Boston.

When Chief Murphy called up the Detective Bureau in New York he was informed that Lichfield's photograph is in the Rogues' Gallery, he having been arrested for stealing a gold watch from Charles H. Smith of 81 New street on Nov. 15. He was convicted in General Sessions, but sentence was suspended. On pec. 12 Fred Jeckle of 75 Gold street, complained at Police Headquarters that Lichfield had stolen three overcoats from his office, Lichfield had called there to see Benjamin Robinson, and as Robinson was out, Lichfield said he would wait for him. A short time later Lichfield and the overce at were missing.

Robinson accompanied the New York detectives to Jersey City yesterday and identified Lichfield as the man who had called on him. Lichfield denied taking e ther the overcoats or the clothing belonging to Carpenter. He said his mind had been a blank for five days. The last thing he remembered, he said, was drinking a lot of cocktails with a woman in the Tenderiolin. He gave his address as 44 West Twenty-fourth street, where the police found the trunk which Carpenter alleged had contained his clothes. It will be opened by the police to-day.

Lichfield will be taken before Justice Potts the more than and had to ever the vertex tradition. police to-day.

Lichfield will be taken before Justice Potts

One Woman Discharged Because of He-

Two of the alleged shoplifters arraigned be fore Magistrate Crane in the Jefferson Market Court yesterday were men. John Baum, who said that he was 68 years old, but refused to give any address, was arrested in a Broadway tore by Detective Frank Peyser at 4 o'clock or Monday afternoon. A clock and a mirror, valued at $4, were found in the inside pockets of his ulster, besides a pair of gold-rimmed spectacles, which the detective believed to have been taken from some other store. Baum pleaded guilty to the theft of the clock and the mirror, but asked repeatedly for the return of the spectacles, which, he said, were his own property, and without which he could not see, he was held in $300 bail for trial. Many pro-ple in court were struck by the resemblance which Baum's face and head bore to the latest portraits of Gladstone.

which Baum's face and head bore to the latest portraits of Gindstone.

Thomas Brady, 47 years old, address refused, was held in $300 baif on the charge of taking three pairs of spectacles, three rings and a pair of culf buttons, all valued at $6.50, in the store of H. H. Macy & Co., where he was arrested by Store Detective Henry Plunkett.

Mrs. Eliza Byan of 248 West Sixteenth street, who was arrested in a Sixth avenue store on Monday evening charged with taking articles valued at $18, was discharged because the store detective refused to enter a complaint. He said that there were a number of mitigating circumstances. He said that the woman was very poor and the mother of eight small shildren.

able Advice Is Volunteered to You.

An epidemic of grip is upon America that is sausing a vast amount of sickness and frequent Are you prepared? If not, you should not wait a moment.

The body is in so bad a condition when grip stracks it that it must have help. It needs assistance; it requires stimulation; it must have it. Ordinary stimulation will not do. It must be of a medicinal kind. Prof. Joseph Parish says: "We know that sloohol will steady the heart, slow the pulse, warm the skin, calm excitement, and we ought warm the akin, calm excitement, and we ought to use it."

This is all true, but in case of the grip you require in addition something medicinal; something that will do more than this: something that will make you well.

The United States Government acknowledges that there is but one medicinal whiskey in America. It acknowledges that by its certificate and its stamp. That whiskey, which extends on a plane by itself far above the ordinary whiskey, is Duffy's Pure Malt.

It has been known to the people of America for twenty years.

There has never been a case of grip which it has not either cured on checked. It is to-day relieving thousands who would otherwise be carried on the swift current of disease toward death.

It will certainly help you, if you have the slightest symptom of cold, chills, grip or pneumonia. Bear this carefully in mind and do not delay -Adv.

the upper part of the city, were arrested yesterday by Policeman Charles G. Schmidt of the Morrisania station. It is charged that Dinino and Loverris made five-cent purchases in cigar stores, paying for them with bad dimes which they obtained, one at a time, from Rigo, who waited a block or so from the stores while the others passed the coin.

William Thompson, who has a cigar store at Third avenue and 178th street, had one of the bad dimes passed upon him yesterday morning by Loverria, whom he followed and saw joined by Dinino and Rigo. Thompson called Foliceman Schmidt's attention to the three men and he and the policeman followed them to a cigar store at 186th street and Third avenue, where Dinino passed a counterfeit dime. As soon as Dinino rejoined his companions the policeman arrested the three. As he was being taken into custody Rigo dropped a package containing ten bad dimes. A young man who was passing picked them up and gave them to the-policeman. At the Tremont police station a purse containing three counterfeit dimes was found upon Rigo. The three prisoners were taken before Commissioner Shields, who held them for examination under $2,000 bail each.
